Miss Bowers Is Better; Today Is Anniversary Will Make World Tour

So rapid is the recovery of Miss Reports that come from Miss Bowers are encouraging, and her pluck and optimism are doing much to help the process of convalescence. Her broken arm is mending normally.

Of Big London Riot

The first "national demonstration Martha Bowers, who is now in Gar- the unemployed" took place in England field Hospital with a broken arm, received in an accident while riding a week ago, that there is little doubt she will be able to start on a tour of the world with the Attorney General and Mrs. Wickersham on March 15. The total damage was estimated at $250,000. Many similar demonstrations have since been held in England, but have usually been of a more peaceable.

National Bank Loans On Realty Proposed

Senator Hoke Smith introduced an important bill in the Senate yesterday, the office of which would be to enable national banks to loan money on real estate security.

In view of the fact that Mr. Smith will have a large hand in shaping legislation when the Democrats control the Senate after March 4, the measure attracted much notice.

Kansas City Unions Indorse Free Lunch

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 2.-Organised labor of Kansas City does not favor proposed legislation abolishing free lunch in the saloons of Missouri. The industrial Council, at the request of Joseph A. Galiagher, of the bartenders' union, adopted a resolution opposing an anti-free lunch bill now before the legislature.

Gallagher said that such legislation would deprive many cooks and bartenders of the means of livelihood, and charged that "whisky men are behind the bill because they think more whisky will be sold and less beer."
